

ORIENTEERING RISKS & WAIVER – PLEASE READ

GENERAL RISK WARNING

Competing in an orienteering event is subject to risks. These include death, injury, distress or illness arising from various factors including but not limited to:

- becoming lost or disoriented
- rough terrain and obstacles
- over-exertion
- heat, cold or other adverse weather conditions
- contact with dangerous plants and animals
- collision with vehicles, other competitors or pedestrians.

There is also a risk that access to medical, evacuation or search services might be slow or delayed due to remote location or other factors.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Orienteering Tasmania publishes the names of competitors in entry information, results and newsletters. From time to time, it also publishes photographs pertaining to a specific activity or orienteering generally on social media and in news, marketing and promotional material. This information is publicly available and cannot be modified to suit individual circumstances.

WAIVER

Participants in an orienteering event:

- acknowledge that they have read and understood the general risk warning and the privacy statement;
- are aware that orienteering is a recreational activity with inherent risks and acknowledge that they participate in orienteering activities at their own risk;
- agree to abide by any safety requirements necessary for the participation in orienteering activities;
- release Orienteering Tasmania, its affiliated clubs, members and all other parties associated with organising an orienteering activity from any responsibility or legal liability associated with their presence at and/or participation in that activity;
- agree that Orienteering Tasmania is in no way responsible for the loss of or damage to their property while attending or participating in an orienteering activity.
