

Myers Lookout, Crows Nest

Sunday, 23 May, 2021

Map: Myers Lookout, Scale - 1:10000. Undulating to steep spur gully with sections of complex granite.

Starts: From 1.30-2.30pm.

Facilities: Bush toilet.

Courses: Very Easy – orientating the map, Easy – aiming off, Moderate/Hard - contour only, compass and pacing.

Coaching is open to everyone. Newcomers especially welcome. Recommended for Darling Downs team members.

Directions:

From Toowoomba, take the New England Highway into Crows Nest. At the police station (signposted to Crows Nest National Park), turn right into Albert St. Follow this out of town, past the turnoff to the National Park. The assembly area is about 1km past this turnoff. Park on the road, assembly is on the right.

From Brisbane, through Esk, towards Crows Nest, just before Ravensbourne, turn right towards Perseverance Dam. This eventually brings you to a cross roads, turn right, signposted to Crows Nest. Follow this road all the way through, turning right as it becomes a 'No through road' (Albert St). Continue as above.
