

EVENT ENTRY HINTS

1) If you're a non-member, you must have a username and Password set up for each of your family members to enter an event via Eventor. If you haven't, click on:
...and follow the instructions.

If you're a member on Eventor, you'll already be set up. If you haven't yet set up your membership on Eventor, you'll need to at least create your Usernames and passwords at this point to proceed with your event entry.

2) Next, Click on

Ignore this message. It's hard to avoid it showing. Only major events tend to require prepayment online.

3) The following screen will appear:-

Entry terms and conditions

In entering this Orienteering event, I/we recognise that the sport of orienteering has certain inherent risks due to its conduct in the natural environment. Included in these risks are injury due to rough terrain and obstacles and the effects of heat, cold and exhaustion. I/we are also aware there is no personal accident insurance on my participation in the sport and that I/we take part at my/our own risk.

Your Eventor username registration will populate your name, club (if any) and SI card number if you registered one. This will be blank if you're hiring one for the event.

Choose your "class" (or course) from the drop down box.

Prices will be "non-member" prices (eg. $13 adult). Members should click "+Add" and apply for a members discount to get members prices. (eg.$10)

This must be ticked to progress

Click here to enter another family member or multiple family members. They should show in a drop down box.

If you only have a username and password set up in Eventor, you may need to log in as each family person one at a time and enter them individually.

NOTE: There are family rates for members and non-members, equivalent to the total price of two adults and one junior. These are shown on the information PDF.

Be sure to ask for these rates when you register and pay on the day. In which case, you can ignore the price shown on your event order.
