

QBIII Accommodation Ideas

The following businesses have all responded to our invitation for them to offer some sort of incentive for our visiting orienteers to utilise their services. Please bring your custom to these businesses if you can.

Camping

North Coast Holiday Parks
123 Pacific Highway, Coffs Harbour
www.northcoastholidayparks.com.au

When you book, please tell them you are here for the orienteering carnival. If we have quite a few bookings, then we have been offered a complimentary BBQ pack and use of their 6 burner BBQ for our group. Depending on numbers, they can supply it in the camp kitchen or they will offer us their small marquee. At this stage, this might serve as a great family get-together on the Saturday or Sunday night.

There are several caravan parks up and down the northern beaches of Coffs Harbour (which could split the distance between the various events), as well as caravan parks in Coffs Harbour

Restaurants

Coffs Harbour Deep Sea Fishing Club

Family meals available after our event on Saturday night. Orienteers are being offered meals at members price. This is a 5% discount on entrees and mains, as well as the daily member special for $10 (at the moment it is a 300g T-bone or freshly beer-battered fish, both served with chips and salad). Please support this club as best you can. The views are tremendous!

Fiasco Ristorante

Situated in the Jetty area of Coffs Harbour, this restaurant prides itself on its good quality simple traditional Italian food. They would like to offer a 10% discount to all orienteers who dine there over the long weekend. Reservations are essential to claim the discount – and, of course, mention the QB3 Orienteering. (If there are any hitches, co-owner Skye Hawkins will sort it all out). 22 Orlando St, Coffs Harbour. 6651 2006. Tues – Sun from 5pm.
