2017 ACT Long Distance Championships Sunday September 17, 2017

Classic Orienteering at a Classic Location

Brought to you by Abominable O-Men courtesy of course planner Matt “Craney” Crane

The 2017 ACT Long Distance Championships returns to Glendale “with a twist” on an extended map which comprises areas of the never before fully utilised Greater Orroral-Glendale map.

Entries via Eventor

Entries will close on Eventor at 11:59pm on Wednesday September 6, 2017

Organiser: Ann Scown – for Abominable O-Men

Course Planner: Matt Crane (AO-A)

Controller: Hugh Moore (RR-A)

Venue:

Glendale, Namadgi National Park.

Event Format:

This event is classic long distance orienteering. Courses have been set to achieve winning times as per the Orienteering Australia Competition Rules for Foot Orienteering.

Map/Terrain:

Original maps are Glendale, Glendale North, Glendale Paddock and areas of Orroral Crossing.

The terrain varies from open, fast grassland to totally awesome green. There are many areas of complex granite boulders and some river crossings. Longer courses will encounter some steeper slopes. There has been significant revision of the vegetation.

Entry Fees:

Senior (>20) $30, Junior(<21) $18. Family maximum will be calculated by Eventor on the basis of two adult fees and the junior fee.

Enter on the day:

A limited number of entries will be available on three courses – Hard (Course 5), Moderate (Course 8) and Easy (Course 10). Entries will be unofficial with one class per course and the full entry fee paid. EOD competitors will start after all official competitors. Details of the first available start time and registration procedure will be available in the Final Information on Eventor by 11:59pm on Sunday September 10.
