Event Series Information:

Retr-O Christmas Event

About This Event:

Dust off your favourite piece of string and warm up your opposable thumbs, it's time to ditch the dibber and get back to basics. At the 2017 Christmas Event we'll be harking back to the days of sweaty, dirty and blood-stained punch cards*, many of which were discovered recently under a pile of Tin Pot Creek maps in the mapping officer's shed.

The location: A brand new map at Woodbridge School. Parking at the school with toilets available at nearby Silverwater Park.

The format: 'Street-O' format. In this format, controls may be visited in any order and the number of controls that must be visited varies by course. You will be given a map with ALL controls and must choose your own route. This is a mass start event with four courses:

Course 1: 27 controls. All must be visited.

Course 2: 24 controls must be visited (3 can be missed)

Course 3: 20 controls must be visited (7 can be missed)

Course 4: 17 controls must be visited (10 can be missed)

On each course there will be four (4) compulsory controls. These will be clearly marked.

There will also be compulsory activities at certain controls and you will not be able to continue on to your next control until you have satisfactorily completed the activity. Enforcers will be there to ensure you do so!

More details will be given at the race briefing at 10.45 am.

For those of you who can't stand to leave home without your dibber, there will also be a maze-O set up with several courses that you can do at any time.

There will be prizes galore so come along and join the fun. Woodbridge school is just down the road from Peppermint Bay café and restaurant—a perfect place for an après-O coffee.

*clean punch cards also available

definition of 'galore' subject to change without notice
