

OY#7 Ripley Rifle Range

Final Info

Sunday, 1 July 2018

Come experience a fast, fun new map near Ipswich. Undulating to steep spur gully with some patches of rock, on a base of open grassland and forest.

Personnel

Controller: Peter Effenev

Course setter: Ryan Gray

Organiser: James Mitchell

Map

Ripley Rifle Range, ISOM 2017 (new map!)

Scale 1:10,000 for all courses except Easy and Very Easy, which are 1:7,500

Black circles on the map represent archery targets (see left map excerpt). In accordance with ISOM 2017, termite mounds are mapped as brown triangles, which may look unfamiliar (see right excerpt). Black crosses on the map are piles of metal rubbish, take care when running near them.

Preliminary course lengths/climb/no. of controls

Facilities

There will be water on the course and a limited supply at the Assembly Area. Please bring enough water for your own needs.

There will be Porta-loos at the Assembly Area.

Notes

Grass seeds may be quite extensive depending on the weather, so gaiters are recommended. Some creeks and waterholes may be dry, again depending on the weather.

There is a 1km walk from the assembly area to the start. Parking is adjacent to the assembly area.

Easy course runners should be able to run past controls that are not theirs, and potentially go past some of their own controls on a route.
