

Victorian Sprint Champs

Sunday 1st December 2013

Where: Ballarat, Ballarat Grammar

Map: 1:4000, 2.5m contours

Organiser: Eureka Orienteers

Course Setter: Ian Lawford

Prizes: First, Second and Third Prizes for the top 3 men and top 3 women on each of the 3 courses

10 Reasons to Come:

1 Three Sprint races in Two days!

- 2 Have a go at winning the big prizes – or one of the jerseys for the exciting Sprint into Spring series
- 3 Experience the variety of three different maps in two days – varied terrain, unique combination of street-o, park-o and bush –o, and complex school maps where the shortest distance between controls is not a straight line!
- 4 Chance to run in the last State Series event of 2013 and earn points for yourself and your club in the Rockhopper Series.
- 5 Combine your trip to Ballarat with a visit to Sovereign Hill, the Gold Museum or the new Museum of Australian Democracy at Eureka (M.A.D.E. on Eureka Street) – to experience where Australian democratic spirit was born.
- 6 See your results on the big TV screens near the finish and watch as your friends finish to see immediately how your time holds up on your course.
- 7 Be part of the action and the exciting commentary as split times and predictions enhance the atmosphere of the sprint championships
- 8 Have a jog around famous Lake Wendouree on the Steve Monaggetti track or check out the city's streets, gardens and historic places in preparation for aMAZEing Ballarat on 7th December - a unique urban adventure race with a difference
- 9 Check out the Ballarat Gardens and have a coffee or tea at one of the numerous cafes near the lake.
- 10 See why Ballarat is such a popular place for orienteering – as the city prepares for the Australian Championships in September/October 2015 .
- 11 Participate, enjoy, and plan to come back to run, cycle or train – Come to Life in Ballarat – and then teach us how to count.

Some words from the course setter: “Let the games begin.....”

So pre-enter on Eventor for the Victorian Sprint Championships before the deadline on Tuesday 26th November at 12 midnight.

Contact details: Jenny Bourne, Geoff Lawford, email: gjlawford2@bigpond.com