Southern Sunday Local Series – Event #11

5. About This Event:

This is the eleventh event of the Southern Sunday Local Series.

This is the first ever event conducted on this newly mapped area, on a tract of land running adjacent to Gorringe's Beach, in the Mortimer Bay Coastal Reserve.

Come along and enjoy the additional warmth offered by late spring on the sunny Eastern Shore. Bring your bathers along and enjoy time on the beach and in the tranquil water after your run.

The area is dominated by the main North-South track (which is part of the Tangara Trail), and is very flat. Between the main track and the beach are areas of undulating dunes, similar to that found in the Pittwater terrain. The area east of the track is extremely flat and offers mostly fast running through native vegetation.

The event will offer courses of varying degrees of length and difficulty, and the area is suitable for orienteers of all skill levels and ages.

6. Where Is The Start Area?

From Hobart, follow the Tasman Highway toward Hobart Airport, turning off at the Mornington (B33) exit onto the South Arm Highway.

Follow the South Arm Highway (B33) through Lauderdale, and continue onto Sandford.

Around 200m after entering the 70km/h zone at Sandford, turn right onto Rifle Range Road.

Follow Rifle Range Road for 3.6km, until it becomes Gellibrand Drive.
