

Bush Night Orienteering Series

Wednesday nights – January 2020

Toohy Forest Orienteers brings you bush orienteering with a navigation challenge held in the dark to create a fun competition for all ages and running/walking ability. Different venues each week. Great training for adventure runners and rogainers as well as orienteers.

First week 15/1 – Meadowlands, Carina – start with an easier area – parkland with small area of bush

Second week 22/1 – Broadwater, Mansfield – remap of old area not used since 2011. A mixture of parkland and bush

Third week 29/1 – Whites Hill, Carina Heights – mostly bush.

If you are participating in these events you will need to bring a torch. Markers may be placed on mapped features away from any lighting. Coloured maps will be used at a 1:7500 or 1:10000.

- Two courses - Long 4 km - Short 2.4 km
- Starts in blocks at one minute intervals from 7.00pm - with late starts up to 7.30 pm.
- Cost: $8; Family maximum $20
- Sport Ident electronic timing will be used, hire sport ident sticks available.

If a severe thunderstorm or heavy rain threatens or occurs between 5:30pm and 7:30pm these events will be cancelled to protect organizers and participants. If in doubt contact Neil Simson on 0413 119 324.
