

Entry Terms and Conditions for 2020 Wildfire Autumn Classics

The following Entry Terms and Conditions apply to competitors who enter the 2020 Wildfire Autumn Classics, including the Prelude, conducted over the period 16-17 May 2020 and which competitors are asked to accept when they tick the box "I have read and accepted the terms and conditions."

Risk Waiver

We are aware that orienteering is a recreational activity that can be dangerous, accept that there is a degree of risk and acknowledge that we participate in this event at our own risk.

We are aware of, and will comply with Orienteering Australia's Competitors' Rules.

We release Orienteering ACT, its affiliated clubs, members and all other parties associated with organising the event from any responsibility or legal liability associated with our presence at, and participation in, this orienteering event.

General Risk Warning

Competing in an orienteering event is subject to risks. These include death, serious injury or illness due to:

- rough terrain and obstacles;
- overexertion;
- heat, cold or other adverse weather conditions;
- plant and animal life; and
- accidents with vehicles, other competitors or pedestrians.

There are also risks:

- that access to medical, evacuation or search services might be slow; and
- of damage to, or loss of, your personal property.

Statements

1. We are aware there is no health, accident, ambulance, disability or life insurance provided.
2. We allow the free use of our names and photo in entry information, results, news, marketing and promotional material pertaining to the event or orienteering. This does not extend to publishing a photo of a person under 18 with their name; see the paragraph on photography below.
3. We will ensure that any children under our control at the event are appropriately supervised at all times. We acknowledge that parents and guardians are responsible for deciding whether their children are capable of orienteering by themselves at each event.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular shall include the plural and, in the plural, include the singular.

Photography. Photos might be taken during these events that might be used to complement stories on this and other websites, and/or published in newspapers, magazines or The Australian Orienteer. If you or anybody you know would object to the publication of a photograph please advise the organisers through an email to tate@t8photography.com .
