COURSE NOTES:

- Enter the farm off Lovers Lane and follow signs to start area.
- The area was mapped in 2011 by Paul Dowling, with minor updates since then.
- Active mining areas and mining machinery are out-of-bounds.
- All courses scale 1:10 000 with 5 m contours
- The area is steep. Climb on courses is calculated in a straight line between controls and some of the climb can be avoided with alternate route choices.
- There are several ruined fences in the area that provide a tripping hazard. Most are mapped but hard to see so please take care.
- There are sheep in the paddocks off Lovers Lane so please keep gates closed. The gates to keep closed will be signposted.
- Feral pigs are now active in the area (first time in 25 years). There are some motion activated cameras (you might be captured on film so be discreet!) and cage traps around. None of these provide a hazard to the orienteer but if you see them please don't disturb them. Also if you see a feral pig just keep a safe distance away.
